

Chronic Pain Gains in Alberta: An ECHO Series

The CMN is proud to present “Chronic Pain Gains in Alberta: An ECHO Series”. ECHO® is an interactive online medical education program. Participants work through a real submitted case with coaching, guidance, and feedback from an interdisciplinary team of experts (listed below) and their fellow peers.

ECHO® is flexible, free, and accessible – get involved today!
Get registered and consider submitting a case!

Dr. Ted Findlay
DO CCFP FCFP

Dr. Lori Montgomery
MD CCFP FCFP CHE

Dr. Kelly Shinkaruk
MD FRCPC MSc (MedEd)

Julie Min
BSc Pharm

Dr. Nancy Easton
MD CCFP

Events

March 24 | 7:30 PM

Opioid Use in Older Adults – Ideal vs Actual Patient Journeys

April 6 & 20 | Chronic Pain Gains in Alberta: An ECHO® Series

April 28 | How to DO Trauma Informed Care & Repair Relationships that Go Wrong

Stay up to date on CMN events!

In the News

- Toxi-City: Deadly drugs in Edmonton — Overdoses are happening across all neighbourhoods and families are bearing the brunt of the crisis
- Alberta records deadliest year for drug overdoses in 2021
- Alberta announces \$825K in funding for addictions, mental health organization in Medicine Hat

Visit the CMN news page.

Pain BC – Testimonial Word Cloud

Become a CMN member and access accredited Pain BC courses for free.

Top Stories

- Join the CMN to expand your experience in chronic pain and addiction with the CMN’s pilot Observership Program.
- Invite your colleagues for free CMN CME! Virtual Collab Forums are now open to all health care providers. Follow the schedule and get registered here.
- PEER has officially published their Simplified Chronic Pain Guideline – a valuable document that has been developed over 2 years with review of over 70,000 randomized control trials and includes a decision aid to be used for shared decision-making. Give it a read!